

PRESS RELEASE

Shukran Foods celebrates San Isidro by distributing 150 cocidos madrileños in collaboration with the foundation Mensajeros de la Paz

- The menus will be distributed on May 15 at 13h in the afternoon at the Church of San Antón del Padre Ángel.
- With this solidarity action, Shukran Foods seeks that the most disadvantaged people enjoy a complete and healthy meal on such a special day.

Madrid, May 14, 2024 - Inflation and global instability are having a great impact on the economy of many families. Some of them do not have the necessary resources to enjoy a hot meal on such a special day, and it is for this reason that the food company Shukran Foods has decided to join Mensajeros de la Paz for the sixth consecutive year, organizing a massive cocido for 150 people to enjoy the traditional dish of the holiday, the cocido (or stew) madrileño.

Patricia Gallego, CEO of Shukran Foods explains that “we are proud to collaborate with Mensajeros, we believe they do a commendable job and therefore, we join with solidarity initiatives such as the San Isidro stew. I am very proud to have such a supportive team that makes the holidays of the most disadvantaged a little better. We have managed to turn the solidarity stew into a tradition and we want to continue with it for many years to come”.

The menu, for 150 people, consists of a complete stew - with soup, chickpeas and meat -, San Isidro doughnuts and a juice. A complete menu that contains all the nutrients necessary for a balanced diet. “In addition, chickpeas are the hallmark of our company. Among other products, we are dedicated to the production of hummus, whose main ingredient is this legume. Chickpeas are a source of healthy energy, rich in essential minerals such as potassium, phosphorus, calcium, iron and zinc,” explains Shukran Foods' CEO.

Shukran Foods has been collaborating for years with Mensajeros de la Paz within the framework of the “Shukran for Good” program, organizing the San Isidro solidarity stew every May 15 and donating food to the Father Angel Food Bank.

Attendance data:

Day: Wednesday, May 15 at 1:00 p.m.

Place: San Antón Church (C/ Hortaleza, 63. Madrid)
